

JOINT COMMISSION RECERTIFICATION

Memphis, Tennessee - November, 2009

O.R. Nurses, Inc. has maintained the Gold Seal of Approval™ for health care staffing services from The Joint Commission.

The company initially completed the Joint Commission's comprehensive review process back in December, 2007, earning the Gold Seal of Approval™ for the first time. The certification was awarded within 24 hours, due to outstanding results following an extensive review of corporate processes, client contracts, and professional personnel files, as well as thorough interviews with clients and employees.

Denise G. Burnett, RN, BSN – President, stated, "It's a great honor to renew our Joint Commission Certification, earning the honor to use the Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval™. Certification recognizes O.R. Nurses, Inc.'s dedication to providing healthcare professionals that are qualified to provide safe, high-quality care to patients. After over 21 years in the temporary staffing business, O.R. Nurses, Inc. has further validated the focus on excellence by maintaining this distinction. This is an achievement resulting from the hard work and dedication set forth by all of our employees, and we appreciate their efforts to ensure that O.R. Nurses, Inc. surpasses the standards necessary to continue excellence in temporary staffing."

Health care organizations that contract with O.R. Nurses, Inc. can look to this certification as an assurance that O.R. Nurses, Inc. demonstrates a commitment to providing and continuously improving quality services," says Michele Sacco, M.S., executive director, Health Care Staffing Services Certification, Joint Commission.

The Joint Commission is the nation's oldest and largest standards-setting and accrediting body in health care. Founded in 1951, The Joint Commission seeks to continuously improve the safety and quality of care provided to the public through the provision of health care accreditation and related services that support performance improvement in health care organizations. Its certification program, launched in October 2004, offers an independent, comprehensive evaluation of a staffing firm's abilities to provide competent staffing services.
